to bring a cell phone to school that will be collected by the teacher or kept in his/her backpack during the school day and turned off. The phone is only for emergency purposes for use after school and no texting is allowed on campus. Our family is responsible for making sure that the cell phone is clearly identifiable to the teacher. In accordance with St. Raphael School Policy, I understand that my child is not to contact me nor may I contact them for any reason during the school day. I also understand that the abuse of this will result in loss of cell phone privilege. Also, no other electronics are permitted on campus.
